

THE CALLER

AMERICAN LUTHERAN CHURCH CASTLEWOOD, SD

Volume 31, Issue 1, January 2026

P.T.'s Practical Theology:

And behold, the star that they had seen when it rose went before them until it came to rest over the place where the child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy. And going into the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Matthew 2:9-11

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Hebrews 12:1-2

"Joy to the World, the Lord is Come! Let earth receive its King"

That beloved hymn that so powerfully marks the Christmas season may still be heard on the radio and still used in our worship of the King that came unto us in the form of a child. On Christmas Eve this year we heard the Gospel from Luke 2, but we also heard of the wise men from the East who had followed a star that led to the king of the Jews. "They rejoiced exceedingly with great joy" when their long journey had led them to their quest. And they met the child and his mother, and fell down to worship him!

Now, we might not think that our beloved Christmas hymn "Joy to the World" has wider use than December and January. But maybe, just maybe, it could also be a great Easter Hymn. Afterall, the child that the wise men came to worship was the one who would then sacrifice His life to become the Savior of many. The fact that Jesus had to die so that we could live may not ring "joyfully" in our ears, but as the writer of the book of Hebrews states, "Jesus...who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God." Jesus' joy came from the fact that he had accomplished for us what he had been born to do. Jesus' joy came not in that he had to die, but that through His death, he has brought us to salvation. His joy becomes our joy when we embrace what Jesus did to the power of sin, death and the devil. His joy becomes our joy when we celebrate in the fact that the child King of Christmas truly became the King of Kings! So, we sing: "Joy to the World"!

In His Service,

Pastor Tom

Youth Group – 2026 Youth Gathering or Mission Trip

Pastor Tom and Brenda are looking for input from our youth and their parents as to what kind of Summer Faith Trip would be of interest. Our denomination will be holding the Continental Youth Gathering in Roanoke, VA July 7-10. Other possibilities could be week-long mission trips such as we have done to Cheyenne River or Colorado Springs. Or, if those trips are too long in length we can hatch another shorter-term mission trip as we did last year. Please let us know of your interest!!
